Economy Comfort, and Health.—At the corner of Others, and Sothest is such a BOARDING HOUSE as a large class in this and continuous cities have hitherts sought in vain. There are many 'andlies and single versons of both sexes who would like to find a good house with ample accommodations away alike from the confusion of the most public thoroughfures and the fumes of men and tobacce. There is also a large class who would jailly shun the tempting viands of Hotels and fashionable Bearcing Houses, where guit and dyspepsia float in every dish, if they could find a neat, plain, yet plent sous table, where cooking is regarded as an important science, in ignorance of which thousends of lives are annually sacifified. Mesers, TAYLOR & Co have just such a house and table. They furnish naither Tay, Coffee, or Tobacco but the greatest variety of Fruit, Farinacea and Vegetsbles, and Mest once a day. Their boure is large, rooms convenient, modern improvements in profesion, and the whole has an air of neatness and domestic quiet really home-like. We recommend this Hygeanic Home as passesing superior advantages for a Family Bearding House, and the seconumedations there afforded would cost nearly dynic the sum down town.

No. 160 and 162 Nassau-st.

"It is an earnest and truthful story of progressive childhood under all its varied influences of circumstance, association, and opinion. There is no intricacy of pot, or marvelous adventure, in the tale; yet it preserves a continued interest throughout; and by its simple charm the reader is insensibly beguiled into the consideration of important Christian truths and high moral principles. Such teachings, through the pages of fiction, cannot be too highly praised. The young heroine of this book is presented in the charming character of an arties, happy child; and as it is said there are no children now-adays—only precoclous men and women—this graphic potrait of one of the old times race of juveniles is the more refreshing. Little Neille is deliathful in her innneat gayety and unif-reed nature; impulsive, ardent, and confiding, her heart instinctively opens to the hand of sfection, from which the good seed is scattered which afterward bears its appropriate fruit in her life. The other characters are happly delineated, each preserving its peculiar individuality. Life, in its daily routine of action, is unfolded on the page. The courtly, polished man of the world is seen, ever clothed in the politoness of his caste. The warm hearted, eccentric philamitropia figures humorously with his coldities; and the gentle, Christian pater, placed in contradistinction with the thundering Boanerges of the pulpit, succeeds in making Just published by ROBERT OARTER & BROTHER, No. 225 Broadway.

WHY GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK is the MOST POPULAR MAGAZINE in the COUNTRY —See the STEEL PLATE GOLD FURSES, COLORED FASHION, and at least SIXTY OTHER ENGRAVINGS in the December number, and the question is answered. A lady does not purchase a magazine simply for the Fashion Plate. Godey always gives a Steel Engraving worth half the price of the number.
He also gives various fanciful designs for the ladies, so expenvively not up that other works cannot afford to give them.
The mamense circulation of "Godey" gives him this advantage, and then the literary matter is so superior that a lady cannot heatiate a member in her choice which magazine to purchase. For sale by all booksellers.

AND HER SUCCESSORS.

By Samuel M. Smucker, E.q. Price One Dollar.
Catharine il was equally remarkable for her taien's, her heroism, her successful intrigues, her perseverance, her profitsavy, her cruelites, and her crimes. Her story is told in clear, beantini and proper language by the gifted author. It reveals in wind distinctness the terrible harrors of absolution, the carraption of irr spoasible county, and the cruel and oursageous wrongs instituted upon the subjects of despotic rule.
